

PLUGGED IN COVID-19 WAIVER – Fall 2020

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 risk, Plugged In's fall 2020 session will be conducted entirely remotely, over Zoom or a similar platform. Plugged In recognizes that it is possible that some of our participants may choose to come together periodically to the same physical location to play either during scheduled sessions or to rehearse outside of scheduled times. If this occurs, it is entirely by choice of the participant and the participant's family. Because Plugged In is the facilitator of the band, however, we do ask that all participants and their families recognize and acknowledge the risks inherent in any such activity and release Plugged In from any liability in connection with this risk. By affirming you have read and agreed to this policy, you acknowledge the following:

By registering a student (the "Participant") to participate in Plugged In on this page, the responsible guardian of the Participant completing this form, on behalf of that Participant and the Participant's personal representatives, assigns, heirs, and next of kin (the "Participant Parties"), assumes full responsibility for any risk related to COVID-19 arising out of participation in Plugged In programs of any kind, whether virtual or otherwise, and hereby releases, waives, and discharges Plugged In and its directors, officers, agents and employees (all for the purposes herein referred to as "Releasees") from all liability to the Participant and the Participant Parties from any and all claims, demands, damages, rights of action or causes of action, present or future, in any jurisdiction, arising out of or in connection with exposure, infection, and/or spread of COVID-19 related to participating in any Plugged In Program (including, but not limited to personal/emotional injury, wrongful death, disease or any other loss), whether arising out of the negligence of the Releasees, the inherent risks associated with COVID-19, or otherwise, or on any other theory of liability.
